

Meet Eliza

Eliza Broadus - the namesake for the Kentucky state missions offering - is a key figure in the WMU family. At the young age of 26, Eliza moved to Kentucky and became involved in her local missionary society at Walnut street Baptist Church in Louisville. A year later, in 1878, the Kentucky Central Committee was organized, now known as Kentucky WMU. In 1888, when national WMU was formed, Eliza was voted in as the vice-president representing Kentucky.

Eliza made valuable contributions to WMU work through her years of service both in Kentucky and in the work of national WMU. Among, her most notable contributions was her leadership in helping to lay the groundwork for the WMU Training School, which is now the Carver School of Social Work.

Eliza Somerville Broadus (1851-1931) was the eldest daughter of Dr. John A. Broadus, second president of The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Eliza Broadus Offering

OVERVIEW

Every Kentucky Baptist ON MISSION

Your EBO gifts make a difference!

Understanding that missions is what believers do to reach beyond the needs of their congregations to witness and minister for the purpose of fulfilling the Great Commission, Kentucky WML created the Eliza Broadus Offering® to advance Kentucky Baptists' missionary efforts to help people come to know Jesus Christ.

Every dollar your church gives through the Eliza Broadus Offering strengthens and supports the missions and ministry efforts of the Kentucky Baptist Convention, Kentucky Baptist Associations/Networks, Kentucky Woman's Missionary Union, and state-wide compassion ministries.

Gifts from your church are distributed among Kentucky Baptist missions, evangelistic, and compassion ministry causes. Although the amounts vary from year to year, this example shows the breakdown of the offering distribution.

How does your offering support mission efforts?

EBO Philosophy Statement

Funds from the offering will be used for ministry/evangelism in Kentucky with persons beyond the in-fellowship work of local churches (specifically with those who are not currently members of any church) or for ministries/events which will provide training or support for ministry/evangelism in Kentucky with persons beyond the in-fellowship work of local churches.

What kind of ministries does EBO support?

Through the work of the KBC, your EBO dollars are used to support ministries including: state, church & community missionaries; Metro Ministry Centers; Kentucky Disaster Relief Ministry; Displaced Peoples Ministry; the REACH Evangelism and Missions Conference; the Sending Church Initiative; YES! Youth Evangelism Summit; Baptist Campus Ministries; Multi Language Evangelism Conference; VBS Clinics; Student Ministry; and the Capital Chaplain.

Your EBO gifts provides our Kentucky Baptist Associations financial support for ministry/evangelism expenses such as Bibles, tracts, and other supplies; for missions education; or for events which will promote training or support ministry/evangelism efforts.

State-wide
Compassion Ministries

In efforts to provide Kentuckians the opportunity to hear the Gospel, your funds support KBC affiliated compassion ministry centers including pregnancy centers, feeding ministries, food pantries, family resource centers, homeless ministries, prison/jail ministries, race/track ministries, refugee ministries,

The Eliza Broadus Offering provides funding for Kentucky WMLU activities with a ministry/ evangelism focus or those that provide training or support for ministry/evangelism in Kentucky including Kentucky Changers projects for Children, Adults, and Students.
